

Sterling Edwards Workshop

The Green Country Watercolor Society is hosting a workshop by the internationally known artist Sterling Edwards. The workshop will be from April 26th thru April 30th. Class will begin at 9 a.m. and run until 4 p.m. President Judy Aldridge will be at the church early on the first day to allow participants to set up.

Anyone signed up for the workshop should have already received a supply list. Anyone needing the list may contact JoAnn Burkeen at jaburkeen@aol.com. Volunteers are needed on Sunday the 25th to help set up for the next day. If able to volunteer please contact Joann.

GCWS member, Jim Buchan, demonstrated the watercolor techniques of Artist Nita Engle at the April meeting.

Upcoming Events

May 13th...GCWS general meeting. Program, Basics of Perspective, presented by member, Frances Johnson.

May 18th... Spring Paint Out at Ray Harral Nature Park at 7101 S. 3rd St. in Broken Arrow, at 10 a.m. Rain date will be Tues., May 25th.

July 1st thru July 30th... Broken Arrow Historical Society Art Show. There will be information and registration forms at the May general meeting.

In Other News....

GCWS member, Sharon Allred was featured in the Art Links Hearts exhibit at the Oklahoma Heart Institute on April 15th.

The miniature art show in Claremore was a great success with three of our members selling artwork. JoAnn Burkeen, Greg Motto and Molly Blankenship each sold a painting.

A special thank you to Dale Treeman for all her hard work in organizing and setting up the Claremore show.

Member, Teresa Herndon, teaches two watercolor classes at Hobby Lobby in Tulsa and Broken Arrow. Classes are for beginners and experienced painters. You may contact Teresa at twherndon@aol.com. Any member wanting to be included in the GCWS bio book needs to write a one page bio to be put in the book. GCWS currently has 52 members.